

You can't beat thrilling memorabilia

HE'S often been called 'Bad' and sometimes been told to 'Beat It'.

So the fact that Morecambe's most 'wacko' club DJ has paid £1,000 for a signed Michael Jackson photo should come as no surprise.

But that's exactly what DJ Pep did recently when he purchased the exclusive piece of Jacko memorabilia from the Write-Stuff celebrity autograph shop in Lancaster.

The UK Club DJ of the year said: "Michael Jackson was awesome.

"You don't realise how great some people are until they're not there anymore.

"I have loads of signed celebrity photos in my office at home but this will have pride of place.

"If I hadn't bought it, it could have gone to America. I've kept it in Morecambe!"

'Off the Wall' Pep (real name Peter Roberts) said the item had more than tripled in value since Jackson's death on June 25.

The zany jock also said revellers have been "going mad" for Michael Jackson records in the clubs where he works.

"They just don't stop 'til they get enough!" he said.
